DEDICATION

MR. THOMAS CROCE

MR. SAMUEL VOJTEK

We, the class of 1963, dedicate this edition of the Purple and Gold to Mr. Thomas Croce and Mr. Samuel Vojtek. Their patience and understanding and guidance have been an inspiration to us throughout our high school years. We hope to become citizens worthy of their efforts.

In Memoriam

In warm remembrance of Gary Montoni, our beloved classmates, the memory of whose friendship, kindness, and gentle ways will always remain with us.

"No task too great for him to do
And in the doing was a smile
That aided as he carried through
The deeds that were so well worth while.
The brightness of his day is gone,
We see the setting of the sun;
If only we could carry on
And live a life like he has done!
He was our friend."

ANGELO BATTISTI

"Our class president and a worker we know; he'll meet success wherever he goes."

ROBERT BAUER

"Life should not all labor be."

RHEA BILOBROWKA

"Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

No, Rhea, that's not the spare tire!

PENELOPE BRUNDAGE

"The hand that hath made her fair hath made her good."

JAMES CAMPIONE

"You can lead a man to school, but you can't make him think."

JOANNE CAMPIONE

"Small, simple, and sweet but not silent."

Don't work too hard, Jim!

DIANE FAILING

"The quiet mind is richer than a crown."

GERALD CROSIER

"Of all the things I like best, I much prefer to sit and rest."

The end of a long hard day.

JANICE GRAINER

"What sweet life a quiet life affords."

CAROL HAYES

"Silence far outdoes the speech of others."

MARY JANE HAYES

"Flirtation, attention with intention."

RONALD HOFFMAN

"One in a million, he is a friend to all."

It's easy when you know how to do it.

DIANNE KRAFT

"Dianne is cheerful and hard to beat.
To see her smile is really a treat."

GARY JOHNSON

"The teachers always discover my faults; they never discover my charms."

K. P. Duty!

MARGARET LaCOPPOLA

"Though she be but little, she is fierce."

MARY LESLIE

"Her sunbeam smile and her blonde hair--radiate personality everywhere."

CARLTON MCKENNEY

"Studies should never interfere with one's education."

DIANNE PAPA

"She's full of pep and smiles and fun. We'd never call her the quiet one."

Cut on the dotted line.

GARY SENFT

"If study were the only cause of death,
I'd live forever."

LAWERENCE SCHOFF

"What? Me worry?"

Are you sure Wilt Chamberlain started this way?

KATHLEEN SCHUSTER

"Great things in little packages come."

MARIANNE STEVER

"Full of fun and mischief too-doing things she shouldn't do."

DARYL STOCK

"She is little from top to toe, full of life and ready to go."

GARY SWARTZ

"School is all right except for the classes."

Future janitors!

SYLVIA UNDERWOOD

"It's a kind heart that has many friends."

VICKI WALRATH

"She adds sparkle to any group."

Smile; you're on Candid Camera.

DONALD WANER

"The hand on the plow rules the earth."

JOHN YANKO

"Nature and books belong to the eyes that see them."

Well, SOMEBODY'S got to hold this pole up!

The Class of 1963

How many times have we climbed these steps--
These famous steps to school?
The school where we learned the good 3R's
And to live by the Golden Rule,

We dare not guess the number of trips
We've made up here each year.
But when we have to leave this school
We'll surely shed a tear.

Class History

'Twas a bright September day in 1950 when we, the great class of 1963, entered the elementary school. After working hard for six long years, including Kindergarten, we hoped to rule the school at last as sixth graders. At this stage of the game (?) luck was against us and we were forced to become green underclassmen once more. (This time we were on the hill.)

In seventh grade we had a successful dance and a bake sale. Then in eighth grade, we welcomed Mr. Croce and Mr. Vojtek as our class advisors.

From then on things moved fast. We had more dances and bake sales, and in our Junior year we received our precious class rings. Also during that year we held a profitable spaghetti supper and helped put on the first prom in our new gym. The theme for this beautiful dance was "Tropic Dream." In June we put on a Tea for the Seniors and Faculty. It was most enjoyable.

Summer vacation came and went and in September 1962, we began our big year, realizing that we were finally "rulers of the school." We started by selling magazine subscriptions and added to our bank account by holding a record dance. On November 2 and 3, we presented our Senior Play, "No More Homework," which was directed by Mrs. Bilobrowka.

At last came our long-awaited Senior Trip, which we all had been working for these past years. In the spring we had our last Junior-Senior Prom which will be long remembered. When graduation finally became a reality instead of a dream our hearts were saddened at the thoughts of leaving our beloved school, but then we remembered that it was not the end--just the beginning.

CAST

(in order of appearance)

Miss Underwater, school secretary, brisk and efficient Penny Brundage
Miss Bojack, math teacher, acid-tongued old maid Rhea Bilobrowka
Miss Stillmore, English teacher, stuck on DRAHMA Sylvia Underwood
Mrs. Croce, science teacher, sensitive and pleasant Diane Failing
Mr. Harper, history teacher, a confirmed bachelor Carleton McKenney
Coach Beelofs, athletic director, breezy and congenial Larry Schoff
Pamela Jones, lovable and capable senior girl Vicki Walrath
Mr. Milton, principal, ambitious and long-suffering John Yanko
"Buzz" Bailey, more freckles than brains Ronald Hoffman
Shalimar Ames, a born trouble-maker Daryl Stock
"Midge" Murphy, lively but dumb junior girl Kathy Shuster
Faversham Lightly, he loves food and sleep Jerry Crosier
Tallulah Ploetz, the school's gift to the Theatre Dianne Papa
"Tick" Tok, the gruff and grubby janitor Gary Swartz
Mrs. Ratchet, slovenly but tough cleaning woman Margaret LaCoppola
Ronald Sassoon, basketball star and local "Wolf" Robert Bauer
Elmer B. Ames, school board president and leading lawyer Angelo Battisti by

John Henderson

When Pamela Jones was elected student council president, never in her wildest dreams did she foresee having to make the thousand and one decisions required of a school principal. Nor did her boy friend, "Buzz" Bailey, ever expect to find himself doubling as vice-principal and "home ec" teacher, with an omelette in one hand and a dress pattern in the other.

A fighting faculty, a feuding janitor and cleaning woman, the school wolf on the prowl, a false fire alarm, and the scheming plots of jealous school-girls are only a few of the other problems that face Pamela and Buzz and turn the entire school upside down.

Then somehow, with the return of Mr. Milton, the real principal, situations managed to right themselves; and Pam and "Buzz" and the rest of the school return to normal. Well... more or less!

Faversham! Wake up, WAKE UP!

All right.... Napoleon

And I have to speak at the State Principals' Convention.

The Saints enjoyed another fine year, completing the 1962 baseball season with an 8-4 record. They finished second in the Mohawk Valley Interscholastic League. This was the first time in five years that the Saints did not win the M.V.I.L. title. The Saints also have won every home game they have played for three consecutive years. In the opening game of the Class D Sectionals at Johnstown they lost to Mayfield by a 6-1 score.

Farewell

We met, we laughed, we fought, we cried
Through long semesters, side by side.
The road at times was hard and rough,
And all my studies seemed so tough;
But you, my friend, were always near
To help, to chide, to bring me cheer.

Remember how we used to cram,
Afraid we'd flunk that old exam?
Remember when we'd spring a joke
Just to get the teacher's goat?
Many a laugh and many a tear
We shared in these old halls so dear.

Now's the time for parting sighs,
For us to bid our last good-byes.
To teachers, friends, and foes--Adieu!
Saddest of all--Farewell to you!
So long, classmate! Fond thanks I'm giving
Because you made school days worth living!
